2:45-4:00 PM	Navigating Labor and HR Issues Under the Open Meetings Law - Sarah L. Carstensen, Attorney, Woods Aitken Labor-related issues and contract negotiations have become more pronounced as county budgets have shifted from the levy lid to the cap, creating greater downward pressure from reduced revenues while demand for services remains high. This session would provide an opportunity to discuss practical strategies to help county officials avoid labor-related issues, along with guidance on open meeting law, open meetings, and executive session best practices.
4:00-5:00 PM	District Breakouts Each District breakout session will be led by NACO Board of Directors Representatives and NACO Staff. During these sessions, you will discuss the issues your county is facing and gather legislative recommendations to help shape NACO's legislative priorities for 2026. After the breakout discussions, we will reconvene as a full group to share reports from each district and NACO updates including Inheritance Tax and before adjourning for the day.	Southeast
