Attorney General's Opinion on Assessor Trespass

Attorney General Mike Hilgers has issued the attached opinion (AGO 25-003) that affects assessment practices in all counties.

This is the summary from the opinion:

County tax assessors are not exempt from the general law of trespass. A county tax assessor who enters private property without consent or a warrant therefore exposes himself to potential liability. Moreover, a county tax assessor who enters a home, or its immediately surrounding area, without a proper search warrant conducts an unreasonable search in violation of the United States and Nebraska Constitutions.

A more detailed explanation can be found here.

NACO will continue to examine this issue and the need for legislation to grant specific authority to assessors to enter private property.
