Nebraska Association of County Officials Hosts Wildlife Wonders Photography Contest – Submit Photos by August 1

Lincoln, NE — The Nebraska Association of County Officials (NACO) is hosting a “Wildlife Wonders” photography contest. Nebraska’s 93 counties have over one thousand native animals and plants, and NACO wants to see them through the lens of local photographers. Send your best photographs of native Nebraskan flora and fauna.

13 winning photographs will be featured in the annual calendar, and each winner will receive a copy of the calendar and a NACO swag bag. The grand-prize winner will receive $100 and be featured on the cover. Photos not selected to be featured in the calendar may still be featured in a number of NACO publications.

To enter, please visit <https://nebraskacounties.org/photography-contest.html> to review the complete list of rules and submit your photos.

The deadline for entries is August 1, 2025, and winners will be announced in mid-to-late September 2025.
